Chapter 1 by PigletPinkPancake

The cracks got bigger and bigger as we ran through the halls. The walls crumbling behind us as we ran for our lives.

"You have to get ahead! They need you!" I yelled as she ran ahead. She slowed down to my speed and said, "I'm not leaving you behind! Come on we have to go!"

She didn't get it. She was the reason I was still here. I was given my mission and that was to protect this odd girl no matter what the cost. The ceiling collapsed as we kept running. We were running out of time.

"Just hang on! We'll be there soon!" I looked back at her. She was falling behind. I slowed down for her to get on my back. She hopped on and we kept running.

"David your slowing down with me on your shoulders! You have to go on!" I turned around and she stood behind me.

"Hop on! We have to get going!" But she wasn't moving. The collapsing floor and wall were catching up to us. The heat beating down on my face.

"You go on!"

"But you are the only one who has the last piece! GET ON!" She wasn't moving. Suddenly she held out a ruby red sphere. It shined in the fire from under the floor.

"If you fall you die! Come on!" I p

"The power is within us all you just have t-" suddenly the floors fell and she was engulfed by the flames.

"SILVER!" But it was too late.

She fell to the fiery pit... never to be seen again.
